

timore and Washington Transit Company to enter the District of Columbia. To amend the act regulating the keeping of employment agencies. Amending the act relating to the grading of streets in the District of Columbia. An attempt will be made by Chairman Smith to secure recognition on some day in the near future for consideration of the House of the 90-cent gas bill and all the other bills reported today, and last week by the committee. He believes that this can be done.

Inflation Repealer Soon to Come Up

As soon as Chairman Smith, of the House District Committee, gets recognition from the Speaker to call up the bill to repeal the inflation clause of the Gas Monopoly's charter, the House will have a chance to vote on the proposition. Acting under instructions from the committee, Mr. Campbell of Kansas, has reported to the House the Smith bill for the repeal. It is thought now that Mr. Smith will be able to secure consideration of it by the House within the next day or two.

If there had been any doubt in the mind of the House that the inflation clause should be repealed, it was removed by the report of Mr. Campbell, which does not mince words in dealing with the matter. He points out that the District Court of Appeals has declared against the inflation of the capital stock of the monopoly already.

Mr. Campbell's Report.

The report says: "Aside from the fact that section 5 of the act now stands has been declared unconstitutional by the District Court of Appeals, whose decision is presumably correct and should therefore be removed from the statute books, its practical effect is to deny adequate protection to the consumer and the public, because proceedings thereunder are ex parte and the valuation to be made depends solely on witnesses furnished by the gas companies, and there are no funds available to the District of Columbia to employ experts to value the gas plants on the part of the public, and, therefore, no fair valuation can be had under the present law."

"There is too serious ambiguity in the act in that the court is to determine the actual cash value of the plant, which the auditor holds to mean franchises, rights, good will, and working capital, although the charter does not grant a perpetual franchise. The auditor has arrived at this conclusion on the ground that Congress intended to protect those who dealt in gas stocks. If this construction be sustained, and the ex parte character of a judicial inquiry is not maintained, these companies will be allowed to capitalize their profits furnished by the consumers of gas on the testimony of their own witnesses, and thereby secure a valuation which will, if it becomes vested by judicial decision, require a reasonable profit thereon, and thus forever prevent a reduction of price of gas below a fair profit on the accumulated profits of the gas companies, plus tangible property."

"The valuation of the plant of the gas companies and the price of gas cannot be separated. Under the law the courts will not allow the question of the price of gas to be examined, but will capitalize earnings or dividends, thus authorizing the companies to charge a price for gas which will afford a fair return on such increased capital, although gas may be furnished at a less price for fair profit without such increase of capital stock."

"The repeal of the act will take nothing away from the companies or their stockholders, because they can still distribute their surplus earnings as dividends. Section 3 can now be repealed without injury to any one, because no right has become vested by any judgment or decree."

Regulation of Gas Put First on List

That they consider legislation providing for cheaper gas in the District of Columbia is of paramount importance today, when they forwarded to Representative Smith, chairman of the House District Committee, a communication accompanying a list of bills which they desire to have passed at this session. The list is arranged so that the importance of the measures may be judged by their position thereon.

The Committee have placed at the top of the list the House bill for regulation of the gas in the District of Columbia. In writing to Chairman Smith the commissioners urge that this and other measures should be given preference by Congress.

BAY STATE CIRCUSES STAMPEDE FOR BRYAN

BOSTON, April 22.—The Bryan men swept the State at the caucuses held yesterday and last night to elect delegates to the State convention. No contest worth the name was made for any other candidate, and the delegates chosen were, generally speaking, favorable to Bryan.

In Boston only 4 per cent of the party vote came out, and the same thing was true throughout the State. In the only Boston ward where efforts were made to elect delegates, the vote for Johnson, the attempt was unsuccessful.

BUILT RIGHT Brain and Nerves Restored by Grape-Nuts Food.

The number of persons whose ailments were such that no other food could be retained at all, is large, and reports are on the increase. "For 12 years I suffered from dyspepsia, finding no food that did not distress me," writes a lady. "I was reduced from 145 to 90 lbs., gradually growing weaker until I could leave my bed only a short while at a time, and became unable to speak aloud."

"Three years ago I was attracted by an article on Grape-Nuts and decided to try it. My stomach was so weak I could not take cream, but I used Grape-Nuts with milk and lime water. It helped me from the first, building up my system in a manner most astonishing to the friends who had thought my recovery impossible. "Soon I was able to take Grape-Nuts and cream for breakfast, and lunch at night, with an egg and Grape-Nuts for dinner."

"I am now able to eat fruit, meat and nearly all vegetables for dinner, but fondly continue Grape-Nuts for breakfast and supper."

"At the time of beginning Grape-Nuts I could scarcely speak a sentence without changing words around or talking crookedly in some way, but my brain and nerves have become so strengthened that I no longer have that trouble." "There's a Reason." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in papers.

LIFE THREATENED, GUARD DOUBLED

Extra Precautions to Protect
Di Giorgio From Black Hand.

Additional precautions will be taken by the police to safeguard Vincenzo Di Giorgio, of 600 M street northwest, from the wrath of members of the Black Hand since the conviction of Antonio Lanasa, the Italian arch-conspirator and director of the society in Baltimore.

Three policemen, alternating on eight-hour shifts, have been watching Di Giorgio's residence for three months, or from the day the home of Vincenzo's brother, Joseph, was wrecked by a bomb set off by a member of the Black Hand at the instigation of Lanasa. At first the policemen patrolled a short beat, but gave special attention to the Di Giorgio house. Last Friday, however, when the trial of Lanasa began in Baltimore, Vincenzo and his family were informed that they were living in terror of being blown up. Since then the uniformed policemen have been stationed immediately in front of the house.

The patrolmen are under orders to remain at the front of the threatened Italian's residence throughout the eight hours, and arrest any suspicious persons who may be seen loitering around it.

Vincenzo and his brother, Joseph, conducted a wholesale fruit and produce store at 32 Louisiana avenue, and have the largest fruit house in Baltimore. Lanasa is a rival grocer and banana importer, and he had not succeeded as well as the Di Giorgio brothers. He was convicted yesterday on a charge of conspiracy to kidnap Di Giorgio, and was sentenced to 10 years in prison. His wife was dynamited on the night of December 16, 1907.

Immediately afterward Vincenzo received a number of threatening letters, and he was informed that his home would be blown up if he did not go out of business and leave Washington. He immediately appealed to the police for protection, and a guard has been maintained over his home.

Following the arrest of the members of the society who were more determined to carry out their threat against Vincenzo, in view of the conviction of the conspirator, the police have decided to increase the guard, and a guard has been maintained over his home.

The provisions suggested by the Commissioners shall be enacted into law. That conditions will be improved greatly.

The proposed zones around the navy yard, marine barracks, and the War College will relieve those communities of the blight of the saloons. The commandant of the navy yard more than once has protested against the saloons near by the gates of the yard.

These Government institutions, and the removal of the saloons will aid the efforts of the officials to maintain an increased degree of sobriety among the enlisted men.

The proposed increase in the "consent zone" of liquor is a good one. The local option now has to be entirely too local. The provision requiring applicants for renewal of licenses to secure consent from the neighbors is a good one. The Anti-Saloon League does not approve of high license, and has no interest in that part of the Commission's recommendation.

"It is hard to determine what will be the effect if the Commissioners' recommendations are adopted. The provision requiring but one bar room to every 1,000 of population would in itself eliminate 30 saloons next November, when the new license year begins."

The other provisions probably will reduce the number of licenses of all kinds at least 50 per cent.

APPROPRIATIONS REPORT HELD.

Injuries received by Chairman Tawney, of the House Committee on Appropriations, in a street car collision yesterday, will be the subject of the committee's report on the sundry civil bill, carrying a total of more than $100,000,000, being postponed from today until Saturday.

Stenographers Win Boys' Shoot; Western High School Is Second

Marksmanship of J. N. Peale Feature of Individual Match.

Times Trophy Contest
Tonight Promises to Attract Crowd.

Business High School has come to its only last. Never again will the "Stenographers" assume an apologetic attitude when cadets are mentioned or willingly stand the gaff for being the only school in the local circuit that has never won a competitive drill.

Others may go through the manual of arms, march higher and thither with a semblance of "dress" and alignment, but Business carries off the palm when it comes to real shooting with sure-enough lead bullets.

Last night in the team matches of the School Boy Rifle tournament at Winter Armory, Fifth and L streets, the team representing Company G carried off the handsome trophy for the highest aggregate score in a competition open to one team from each of the eleven companies of the High School Cadet Regiment.

Scored 350 Points.

The winners tallied a total of 350 points. Western came second, with 347, and Companies B and A of Central tied for third honors, scoring 345.

In the team shooting McRae, of Western, and Couch, of Central, by scoring 22 points each, won individual honors. Neither of these was on the winning team.

The individual competition for medal scores developed a sensation in the shooting of J. N. Peale, of Central High. He broke the tie for first place made the first night, when Dulin and Hutter, each scored 31, by running up a remarkably high score of 47. Peale was on the range for the first time last evening and his work was a surprise to the veteran marksmen on the side lines.

May Be Record.

Standing he tallied forty-eight points, and prone he made forty-nine. This promises to stand as the record junior marksmanship mark for the season.

By scoring ninety-one Rogers, also of Central, tied with Hutter and Dulin, for second place.

What promises to be the red letter features of the tourney are the battalion matches which will be shot off tonight for The Washington Times Trophy Cup. Members of the Board of Education will be the guests of honor, and invitations have been extended to the teachers of public schools.

CREW OF 24 SAVED; SHIP IS SCUTTLED

NEW YORK, April 22.—The steamship Majestic arrived today, bringing details of the rescue of twenty-four men from the Norwegian tramp oil steamer Helios, which afterward was set afire and scuttled to prevent it from becoming a derelict. The destruction of the Helios was brought about in a peculiar manner.

During a terrific storm on April 2, three oil tanks amidships burst, releasing about 1,000 tons of oil into the hold. The fumes from the oil made it necessary to battle down the hatches. The men could not work the pumps and the ship leaked badly. Captain Kjerboe decided to abandon the vessel. At that time the Majestic came alongside and took off the men.

This was accomplished none too soon, for six of them were unconscious from the oil fumes. The vessel then was scuttled, and a train of fire laid in such manner that it would not communicate with the oil until the Majestic was at a safe distance. The vessel burst into flame about a half hour after being abandoned.

FORGIVEN.

Lady from Philadelphia—Conductor, please let me out at Eighty-ninth street. I'm a stranger and somewhat neglected.

The visitor from the Quaker city sat for a long time in dreaming silence from which she was suddenly aroused by the conductor stopping the car quickly and calling out:

"Ninety-first street, ma'am. Sorry, but I forgot."

"Never mind," said the sweetly smiling lady from Philadelphia, "you needn't go back."—New York Times.

LEAPS TO DEATH AT WIFE'S FEET

NEW YORK, April 22.—Because he believed his wife was leaving him for good and would not heed his plea to return to her home, M. Glasenberger leaped from the window of his home on the fifth floor of a tenement today and was dashed to death on the walk in plain sight of his fleeing wife. Mrs. Glasenberger is prostrated by the tragic fate of her husband, for which she holds herself responsible.

Glasenberger, who was fifty years old, has several grown children by a former wife. When he announced three years ago his intention to marry again and explained his new wife was a young woman scarcely older than his children, they raised objections.

Glasenberger persisted and quarrels have been frequent in the household ever since. Yesterday there was another argument, which ended in the children leaving. This morning another discussion broke out between husband and wife. Mrs. Glasenberger seized her own two-year-old baby and rushed from the house.

As she reached the street she heard Glasenberger calling her. He was perched in the window, and declared that unless she returned he would jump. The woman paused a moment, undecided what to do. Evidently believing she would not return, Glasenberger did not wait. He plunged off. Before his wife's eyes his body lurched through the air, turning over and over, and fell about 100 feet. Physicians said he had been killed instantly.

RUNAWAY KILLS WOMAN; HUSBAND AND SON HURT

PITTSBURGH, April 22.—Mrs. Margaret Wolfram is dead and her husband and four-year-old son are seriously injured, as the result of a horse becoming frightened, running away, and throwing the three occupants of the vehicle to the ground.

Mrs. Wolfram was hurled against a tree, sustaining a fractured skull. She died several hours later.

CONFESSES ROBBERY; THREE HELD FOR TRIAL

Charles Carlisle, William Korst, and William Enge, the three young men who attempted to rob the cigar store in the basement of the Congressional apartment house, several nights ago, were each held in $2,000 bond by Judge Kimball, in the Police Court, this morning, for housebreaking.

Carlisle, confessed on the stand, telling of meeting Korst and Enge in the Smithsonian grounds, and of planning to rob the cigar store. He said that the two young men told him they were out of money, and that they wanted to get enough to take them to Richmond. Carlisle said that he had been unable to obtain work since coming to Washington, and that he agreed to assist in rifling the cigar store.

Carlisle was caught by the negro porter, at the apartment house. He chased the trio to Second, and Water streets southwest, where he captured Carlisle. The other two were arrested by police of the First precinct.
